

Significant event

In light of today's developments concerning the company Isolux S.A., Caixabank S.A. hereby reports that its equity and credit exposures to the aforementioned company were already adequately provided for at the close of the first quarter of 2017 and, consequently, does not expect any significant additional impact derived from this event on the accounts of the second quarter of 2017, which are to be published on the 28th of July.

Barcelona, 4 July 2017