Anyone acquiring securities of the companies affected by the Merger must do so based on their own judgement or because of the securities’ suitability for their purpose and based solely on the information contained in the public documentation drafted and registered by CaixaBank or Bankia, receiving advice if they consider this necessary or appropriate based on the circumstances.

Previous financial statements and growth rates must not be understood as a guarantee of performance, future results or share behaviour and price (including profit per share). None of the content of this presentation must be taken as a projection of future earnings or profits. CaixaBank can give no assurances that the potential benefits identified when formulating the joint merger plan and made public will materialise or that the Group will not be exposed to operational difficulties, additional expenditures and risks associated with the integration.
