Share buy-back programme

- > After receiving the appropriate regulatory authorisation, the Board of Directors agreed in September 2023 to approve and commence the second programme for the repurchase of treasury shares ("SBB" share buy-back) within the framework of the strategic plan for a maximum monetary amount of €500 million with the aim of reducing the share capital by means of their redemption.
 - In January 2024, the programme was completed after CaixaBank reached the maximum planned investment with the acquisition of a total of 129,404,256 treasury shares, representing 1.72% of the share capital. In order to comply with the programme's purpose, the Annual General Meeting held on 22 March 2024 agreed to reduce CaixaBank, S.A.'s share capital by €129,404,256 through the redemption of these shares, at a nominal value of one euro each.
- After receiving the appropriate regulatory authorisation, the Board of Directors agreed on 14 March 2024 to approve and commence the third programme for the repurchase of treasury shares within the framework of the strategic plan, with the following characteristics:
 - Purpose: reduce CaixaBank's share capital by redeeming treasury shares acquired under the share buy-back programme.
 - > Maximum investment: maximum monetary amount of €500 million.
 - Maximum number of shares: the maximum number of shares to be acquired during the execution of the programme will depend on the average price at which purchases take place. Added to the treasury shares held by CaixaBank at any given time, these will not exceed 10% of the Bank's share capital.
 - > Term of the programme: the programme will have a maximum duration of 6 months from the date of the announcement on 14 March 2024. Nevertheless, the bank reserves the right to terminate the buy-back programme if the maximum monetary amount is reached earlier or if any circumstance arises which should so advise or require.

As at 31 March 2024, CaixaBank has acquired 29,885,942 shares for €140,135,956, equivalent to 28.0% of the maximum monetary amount⁽³⁾.

03. MACROECONOMIC TRENDS

AND STATE OF THE FINANCIAL MARKETS

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

In a context marked by great uncertainty and the transmission of monetary tightening, global economic growth has been hampered over the past few months. In spite of this, global GDP is estimated to have managed to sustain growth of just above 3% between the end of 2023 and the beginning of 2024, thanks to the strength of the labour markets, the use of accumulated savings and the inflation correction.

This global resilience masks uneven dynamics between the main regions, from the robust economic activity of the US. to the persistent difficulties in China's real estate sector or the marked weakness in the eurozone.

GDP1, PREVISION GROWTH 2024

ANNUAL CHANGE (%)

(1) CaixaBank Research forecasts for 2024.

ECONOMIC SCENARIO - EUROPE, SPAIN AND PORTUGAL

The eurozone economy has started the year with a very timid growth after entering a technical recession in the second half of 2023. Accordingly, we estimate that GDP grew by around 0.1% quarter-on-quarter in the first quarter of 2024, an outcome that reflects the delicate situation in Germany (0.0% in the first quarter of 2024, after two quarters of declines); and the lack of momentum in France and Italy (both beginning the year practically stagnant). However, we remain confident that activity will pick up, in particular from the summer onwards, driven by the expected decline in inflation and the interest rate cuts that we anticipate the ECB will implement from June onwards. Nevertheless, this weak start to the year has a downward impact on the outlook for 2024 as a whole and accounts for the cut in GDP growth forecasts by the ECB (-0.2 pps to 0.6%) and the European Commission (-0.4 pps to 0.8%). Against this background of economic weakness, inflation has continued to edge towards the 2% target. Thus, in March, headline inflation stood at 2.4% and core inflation, which excludes energy and food, fell to 2.9%.

The Spanish economy is proving more dynamic than expected in the first quarter of the year, having accelerated in the fourth quarter of 2023 to a quarter-on-quarter pace of 0.6%. In terms of activity, the tertiary sector is experiencing notable strength, with tourism playing a particularly important role, which has started the year with excellent results. There has also been an improvement in industry, which had been markedly weak; the PMI for services has reached its highest level since May 2023, while the manufacturing index is on expansionary ground for the first time in 11 months (above 50 points). In turn, job creation has picked up in the first quarter of the year and Social Security affiliation has grown, in seasonally adjusted terms, by 0.7% quarter-on-quarter, compared to 0.4% in the previous quarter. Inflation has broken out of its downward trend, standing at 3.2% in March, one tenth of a percentage point higher than at the end of 2023, owing to the rise in electricity and fuel prices, which were impacted by the partial reversal of the tax cut that was implemented to mitigate the impact of the energy crisis. Nevertheless, core inflation, which excludes energy and unprocessed food, continued to fall and stood at 3.3% in March, down from 3.8% in December.

The higher starting level of GDP, in the wake of the surprise positive growth in the fourth quarter of 2023, together with an earlier outlook for the start of interest rate cuts, has prompted us to revise upwards the forecast for GDP growth in 2024 from 1.4% to 1.9% and in 2025 from 2.0% to 2.2%. We expect this year's profile to be one of less to more, with increasing buoyancy as we move into the downward rate cycle and as the execution of the NGEU funds drives higher private investments.

The Portuguese economy has also begun 2024 stronger than expected. The Bank of Portugal's Daily Activity Indicator reports average year-on-year growth of 5.8% in the first quarter (data up to 20 March), an acceleration from 5.5% in the fourth quarter of 2023. Meanwhile, the disinflationary process has been interrupted and finds itself in a more volatile phase; headline inflation has rebounded to 2.3% in March from 1.4% in December and core inflation, after falling to 2.1% in February, has picked up again in March to 2.5%, still one tenth of a percentage point below December.

STATE OF THE FINANCIAL MARKETS

In view of the progress in the disinflationary process, the central banks have adjusted their communication with the aim of beginning a process of rate cuts in mid-2024. This expectation of an easing of monetary policy is dependent, nonetheless, on inflation continuing to fall towards 2%.

The ECB is expected to cut rates in June, once there is confirmation of an advancement in the last mile towards the inflation target of 2%. We believe that this 25 basis point cut will be followed by three more before the end of the year, with three more in 2025, which would bring the depo rate to 3.00% and 2.25% at the end of each year, respectively. This process of lowering interest rates is estimated to be carried out gradually due to the uncertainty of the intensity of inflationary pressures on domestic factors, that is, on the relationship between business margins, wages and productivity. The ECB has continued with the policy of reducing its balance sheet after it stopped reinvesting all assets of the APP, announced the strategy of gradually withdrawing PEPP reinvestments in 2024 and made the last repayments of TLTROs in 2024 (only €140,000 million remain of the more than €2 billion). With this gradual balance sheet reduction in mind, the ECB announced a new operational framework, which will follow on the current system of abundant liquidity and maintaining the depo rate as the benchmark, but with the intention of the central bank having a lower impact on the financial markets.

Unlike in the eurozone, where the economic activity is showing a more anaemic growth, the US is showing a dynamic economy, a robust labour market and some doubts regarding the continuity of the disinflationary process, which will encourage the Federal Reserve to be more cautious than the ECB and not rush into initiating the rate cuts. Furthermore, the Fed will soon drop the pace of balance sheet reduction, with the aim of more gradually reaching its estimated position of balanced reserves and thus avoiding any eventual financial turbulence, as experienced in September 2019.

In this context, the financial markets in the first quarter of the year gradually adjusted their expectations on lowering interest rates, more in line with what was announced by the central banks. Whereas at the end of 2023 investors priced in an aggressive easing of the monetary policy with up to six and seven rate cuts by the Fed and ECB beginning in spring expectations at the end of this quarter were three or four rates cuts starting in the summer. This change in expectations led to significant upturns of up to 30 and 40 basis points throughout the yield curve of sovereign debt. This resulted in the 10-year benchmark rates of US sovereign debt closing the first quarter at 4.20%, and that of the German sovereign debt at 2.30%. In the eurozone, the debt of peripheral economies performed better, narrowing their risk premiums. Global stock markets extended last year's gains, with the MSCI ACWI up 7.4% and the stock markets in developed economies showing a better performance than those in emerging economies, burdened by China and Brazil. As regards the developed economies' stock markets, the Japanese Nikkei 225 index continued capitalising on the recovery of economic activity amid clearly expansive financial conditions, despite the recent announcement of a slight rise of interest rates in the short term by the Bank of Japan. Lastly, in the foreign exchange market, the dollar appreciated against the euro 2.25%, dropping to 1.08 vis-á-vis the euro from 1.10 at the end of 2023.

- > Other income is impacted by lower income from equity investments. The change in attributable profit in the first quarter of 2024 (€1,005 million), when compared to the previous quarter (€1,157 million), down 13.1%, was mainly due to the following:

- > Net interest income reached €2,781 million and grows 1.2% in the quarter, following the higher contribution by financial institutions mainly due to a higher liquidity.
- > Revenues from wealth management (-6.5%) include the recognition of success fees and a share of profits of certain savings products in the previous quarter. Revenues from protection insurance dropped 1.6% and Banking fees 1.4%.
- > Other income increased 8.4%, impacted by one-off expenses in both quarters. Recognition in the first quarter of 2024 of the banking tax for €493 million and an estimate of the Spanish property tax for €21 million, versus CaixaBank's and BPI's contribution to the Deposit Guarantee Fund of €457 million in the fourth quarter of 2023.
- Allowances for insolvency risk drop 25.4% in the quarter. Other charges to provisions increase 73.3%. Lower losses on the disposal of assets and others following the recognition of one-off asset write-downs in the previous quarter.

Net interest income

Net interest income totalled €2,781 million (up 27.4% with respect to 2023). This increase is due to:

- > Higher income from loans mainly due to an increase in the average rate, as a result of the positive impact of market interest rates on the portfolio indexed to variable rates and on the rates of the new production.
- > Higher contribution of the fixed-income portfolio mainly due to the rate rise.
- > Higher contribution to net interest income by financial institutions mainly due to the impact of a higher excess liquidity.

INTEREST RATES (average rates in %)

These effects have been partially reduced by:

- > Higher costs of customer deposits, which include the effect of the conversion into floating interest by means of interest-rate hedges established for a limited amount.
- > Higher cost of institutional funding, impacted by a rate increase from the repricing of issuances changed to variable rate due to the rise of the rate curve.

Net interest income in the quarter increases 1.2% with respect to the previous quarter. The key aspects are as follows:

- > Higher income of loans and advances, positively impacted by the interest curve and partially reduced by lower average volume.
- > Higher contribution to net interest income by financial institutions mainly due to the impact of a higher liquidity.

These effects have been partially reduced by:

- > Higher costs of customer deposits due to a rate increase. This cost includes the effect of the conversion into floating interest by means of interest-rate hedges established for a limited amount.
- > Lower contribution of the fixed-income portfolio due to the lower average volume.

The customer spread increased by 6 basis points in the quarter to 3.64%, due to the rise in return on lending activity (15 basis points), comfortably offsetting the increase of the cost of deposits (9 basis points).

CUSTOMER SPREAD, GROUP (%)

1) Customer deposit costs excluding hedges and FX and international branch deposits of CaixaBank ex BPI amount to (in bps): 75 in 1Q24, 65 in 4Q23, 48 in 3Q23, 34 in 2Q23 and 17 in 1Q23.

The balance sheet spread rose by 8 basis points in the quarter, mainly due to higher profitability in the retail business and a reduction of the balance sheet following the early TLTRO III repayment at the end of December.

(1) To help readers interpret the information contained in this report, the following aspects should be taken into account:

- "Other assets with returns" and "Other funds with cost" relate largely to the Group's life insurance activity. Net interest income mainly includes the net return on assets under the insurance business maintained to pay ordinary claims, as well as the Group's financial margin for short-term savings insurance products. It also includes the income from financial assets under the insurance business, and an expense for interest that includes the capitalisation of the new insurance liabilities is recognised at a very similar interest rate as the rate of return of asset acquisition. The difference between this income and the expense is not significant.
- Financial institutions on the liabilities side includes repurchase transactions with the Public Treasury.
- The balances of all headings except "Other assets" and "Other funds" correspond to balances with returns/cost. "Other assets" and "Other funds" incorporate balance items that do not have an impact on the Net interest income and on returns and costs that are not assigned to any other item.

08. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Common Equity Tier 1 (CET1) ratio is 12.3%, considering the extraordinary impact from the new SBB programme initiated in March 2024¹, which is deducted in full by the maximum amount of the programme (€500 million, -22 basis points).

The quarterly change in the CET1 ratio, up 10 basis points (bps), is mainly caused by the organic growth (+36 bps), reduced by the forecast of dividend charged to this year (payout 60%), AT1 payment coupon (-29 bps) and the performance of the markets and other factors (+4 bps).

- > The internal CET1 target ratio is set between 11.5% and 12%, which implies a margin of between approximately 300 and 350 basis points in relation to the SREP requirements.
- > The Tier 1 ratio reaches 14.3%. In this quarter, a new AT1 issue for €750 million was completed and €605 million from a previous AT1 issue were repurchased. After the close of 1Q24 an announcement has been made to execute a call for the remaining part of the AT1 issue, €395 million euros. This will have an impact of -17 basis points, leaving the Tier 1 Proforma (PF) at 14.1%.
- > The Total Capital ratio stood at 16.5%, following the early redemption of Tier 2 instruments for €1,000 million in February. The proforma AT1 call Total Capital would be 16.3%.
- > The leverage ratio stood at 5.8% (proforma AT1 call of 5.7%).
- On 31 March, the subordinated MREL ratio reached 23.9% and the total MREL ratio 27.1%. Two issuances of Senior non-preferred debt were carried out this quarter, one for €1,250 million and another in two tranches for $2,000 million. An issuance of Senior preferred debt was also carried out for 300 million Swiss francs. The proforma AT1 call ratios would be 23.7% y 27.0%, respectively.

O9 SEGMENT REPORTING

09. SEGMENT REPORTING

This section shows financial information on the different business segments of the CaixaBank Group, configured as follows:

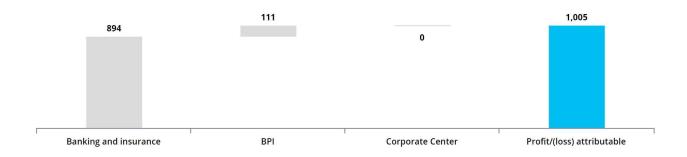

- > Banking and Insurance: shows earnings from the Group's banking, insurance, asset management, real estate and ALCO's activity mainly in Spain.
- > BPI: covers the income from the BPI's domestic banking business, essentially in Portugal. The income statement shows the reversal of the fair value adjustments of the assets and liabilities resulting from the business combination.
- Corporate centre: shows earnings, net of funding expenses, from the investees Telefónica, BFA, BCI, Coral Homes and Gramina Homes.

In addition, the Group's excess capital is allocated to the corporate centre, which is calculated as the difference between the Group's total equity and the capital assigned to the Banking and Insurance business, BPI and the investees allocated to the corporate centre. Specifically, the allocation of capital to these businesses and investees takes into account the 11.5% capital consumption for risk-weighted assets, as well as any applicable deductions. Liquidity is the counterpart of the excess capital allocated to the corporate centre.

The operating expenses of these business segments include both direct and indirect costs, which are assigned according to internal distribution methods. The corporate expenses at Group level are assigned to the corporate centre.

The profit attributable to the VidaCaixa Group in the first quarter of 2024 stands at €298 million, up 8.0% with respect to the same period of 2023:

- Net interest income mainly includes the net return on assets under the insurance business maintained to pay ordinary claims, as well as the Group's financial margin for short-term savings insurance products.
 - It also includes the income from financial assets under the insurance business, and an expense for interest including the capitalisation of the new insurance liabilities. This at a very similar interest rate as the rate of return of asset acquisition. The difference between this income and the expense is not significant.
- > Share of profit/(loss) of entities accounted for using the equity method mainly shows the contribution made by SegurCaixa Adeslas, 49.9% of which is owned by VidaCaixa, the year-on-year performance of which is impacted by the recognition, in the first quarter of 2023, of income associated with the revaluation of the stake held in IMQ after the participation increase.
- > Net fee and commission income¹ mainly includes fees and commissions received by VidaCaixa for managing pension plans, net of fees and commissions paid to CaixaBank, S.A. and its subsidiaries for distributing them.
- > The Insurance service result includes the results of life-savings, life-risk and Unit Linked products, net of expenses directly attributable to the contracts.

(1) The commercial network in Spain also receives fees for distributing its insurance products through the branch network, although these fees are not included in the income statement for the insurance business, because they relate instead to the banking business ex insurance.

- > Dividend income: the quarterly performance is impacted by dividend from Telefónica for €61 million, recognised in its entirety in the first quarter of 2023, after its approval at the Annual General Meeting in March (in 2024, it was held in April).

In addition, the second quarter of 2023 includes the dividend from BFA (€73 million).

14 APPENDICES

APPENDIX 1: ALTERNATIVE PERFORMANCE MEASURES

In addition to the financial information prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs), this document includes certain Alternative Performance Measures (APMs) as defined in the guidelines on Alternative Performance Measures issued by the European Securities and Markets Authority on 30 June 2015 (ESMA/2015/1057) (the "ESMA guidelines"). CaixaBank uses certain APMs, which have not been audited, for a better understanding of the Group's financial performance. These measures are considered additional disclosures and in no case replace the financial information prepared under IFRSs. Moreover, the way the Group defines and calculates these measures may differ to the way similar measures are calculated by other companies. Accordingly, they may not be comparable.

ESMA guidelines define an APM as a financial measure of historical or future performance, financial position, or cash flows, other than a financial measure defined or specified in the applicable financial reporting framework.

In accordance with these guidelines, following is a list of the APMs used, along with a reconciliation between certain management indicators and the indicators presented in the consolidated financial statements prepared under IFRS. Figures are presented in millions of euros unless the use of another unit is stated explicitly.

This document is intended exclusively for information purposes and does not aim to provide financial advice or constitutes in any way an offer to sell, exchange, or acquire, or an invitation to acquire any type of security or any financial service or product of CaixaBank, S.A. (hereinafter, "CaixaBank" or the "Company" indistinctly) or of any other company mentioned herein. Anyone who purchases a security at any time must do so solely on the basis of their own judgement and/or the suitability of the security for their own purposes, and exclusively on the basis of the public information set out in the documentation drawn up and registered by the issuer in the context of the specific security issue or offer, having availed themselves of the corresponding professional advice if they consider this necessary or appropriate in accordance with the circumstances, and not on the basis of the information set out in this document.

This document may contain statements relating to projections or estimates in respect of future business or returns, of a financial and non-financial nature (e.g. ESG performance targets), particularly in relation to information regarding investments and investees, prepared primarily on the basis of estimates made by the Company. While these projections and estimates reflect the Company's current opinion or view of future business prospects, certain risks, uncertainties and other relevant factors may cause the actual results or outcome to be substantially different to what the Company currently expects. These variables include market conditions, macroeconomic matters, regulatory and government requirements, fluctuations in national or international stock markets or in interest and exchange rates, changes in the financial position or our customers, debtors or counterparties, as well as our capacity to meet ESG expectations and obligations, which can mainly depend on the actions of third parties, such as our decarbonisation targets, etc. These risk factors, together with any others mentioned in past or future reports, could adversely affect our business and the levels of performance and results described, including the ESG performance targets, which may differ substantially. Other unknown or unforeseeable factors, or in which there is a degree of uncertainty about their performance and/or potential impact, could also make the results or outcome differ significantly from those described in our projections and estimates.

Past financial statements and previous growth rates are no guarantee of the future performance, results or price of shares (including earnings per share). Nothing contained in this document should be construed as constituting a forecast of future results or profit. Furthermore, this document was drawn up on the basis of the accounting records held by CaixaBank and the other Group companies, and includes certain adjustments and reclassifications to apply the principles and criteria operated by the Group companies on a consistent basis with those of CaixaBank, such as in the specific case of Banco Portugués de Investimento (BPI). Therefore, certain aspects of the information provided herein may not match the financial information reported by this bank.

This report contains a number of the Alternative Performance Measures (APMs) set out in the Guidelines on Alternative Performance Measures published by the European Securities and Markets Authority on 5 October 2015 (ESMA/2015/1415) ("the ESMA Guidelines") so as to provide a clearer picture of the company's financial performance and situation. Please be advised that these APMs have not been audited. These measures constitute additional information and should be treated accordingly. In no event are they intended to replace the financial information drawn up in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). Moreover, the way the Group defines and calculates these measures may differ to the way similar measures are calculated by other companies. As such, they may not be comparable. Please consult the report's section that includes the details of the APMs used. The report also provides a reconciliation between certain management indicators and the indicators presented in the consolidated financial statements prepared under IFRS. The Group has applied IFRS 17: "Insurance Contracts" and IFRS 9: "Financial Instruments" to the assets and liabilities under the insurance business as of 1 January 2023 and hence the income statement for the fiscal year 2022 and the balance sheet at 31 December 2022 have been restated for comparative purposes. The Group has also considered the IFRS 9 requirements, an accounting standard that it had already been applying to recognise and measure its financial assets and liabilities in its banking business. The financial information published in the Business Activity and Results Report of the first quarter of 2023 has been restated in the second quarter after obtaining more detailed information (Other Relevant Information of 5 May 2023). See 'Relevant aspects in the half' and 'IFRS 17 and IFRS 9 Restatement'.
