

INSTRUCTIONS FOR REMOTELY ATTENDING THE GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

Board of Directors –23 October 2020

These Instructions for remotely attending the General Meeting applies according article 22 of the Articles of Association which foresees attendance to the General Meeting physically or remotely via a telematic connection. Moreover, remotely attendance is also contained in Royal Decree-Law 8/2020, of 17 March, on extraordinary urgent measures to face the economic and social impact of COVID-19. These Instructions shall also apply in case the meeting is held exclusively online depending on how the pandemic evolves, there is still a possibility that the city of Valencia and/or other Spanish municipalities will be affected by these measures, or for the competent authorities to issue new rules that somehow limit or prevent attendance in person at a General Shareholders' Meeting; according to article 41 of the Royal Decree-Law 8/2020, of 17 March, on extraordinary urgent measures to face the economic and social impact of COVID-19 and the joint Release issued by the Registrars Association and Spanish National Securities Market Commission ("CNMV") on the General Meetings of listed companies called to be held while there are ongoing restrictions or recommendations derived from the health crisis, published last 28 April, in order to allow all shareholders and their representatives to participate remotely at a General Shareholders' Meeting and exercise their rights of information, proxy, intervention and vote.

The Board of Directors has approved these Instructions for remotely attending the General Shareholders' Meeting with the purpose to govern procedural aspects, which includes, among other matters, requirements for registering and confirming the identity of attendees, the deadline for completing the registration process ahead of the meeting, and how and when shareholders attending the General Meeting remotely via a telematic connection may exercise their rights while the meeting is in progress.

Remote attendance of the General Meeting

Shareholders and proxies who have the right to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely may use online media, connecting remotely, pursuant to the procedures described in these Instructions for remotely attending the General Shareholders' Meeting, which seek to make it possible for shareholders and proxies attending the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely to interact in real time and, thus, exercise their rights and ensure the meeting can be held accordingly.

The remote attendance of shareholders shall take preference over any votes those shareholders may have cast remotely and any powers of representation granted ahead of the meeting.

Previous registration of shareholders and proxies to attend remotely

Shareholders or proxies that wish to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely shall register on the Remote Attendance Platform accessible via the General Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting - December 2020 section of the Company's website (www.caixabank.com).

The Remote Attendance Platform will come online starting at 8.00 am on the day of the General Shareholders' Meeting, i.e., 2 December 2020, at first call and, where applicable, 3 December 2020, at second call.

Previous registration of shareholders

Shareholders that wish to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely shall register on the Remote Attendance Platform, starting from 8:00 am and until 11.00 am on the day that the General Shareholders' Meeting is held (i.e, 2 December 2020, at first call and, where applicable, 3 December 2020, at second call).

To prove their identity, shareholders shall identify themselves using an electronic national ID card (DNIE), a recognised or advanced electronic signature, based on a valid, recognised electronic certificate, issued by the Spanish Public Certification Entity (CERES), belonging to the Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre or, for users of the digital banking service CaixaBankNow, using their customized access codes.

For a legal entity shareholder to register on the Remote Attendance Platform and attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely, the authorised representative completing the registration process on behalf of the corporate shareholder must prove in advance that he/she is entitled to act on behalf of that legal entity, as well as his/her own identity by sending per email the Attendance Card addressed to the legal entity shareholder issued by the Company or by the entity in which the legal entity shareholder has deposited the shares, duly filled in and signed, together with a copy of the national ID card (DNI), foreign resident card (NIE) or passport belonging to the representative that is authorised to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely, and a copy of the document evidencing his/her powers or position allowing him/her to act on behalf of the legal entity shareholder. All such documents should be sent to personajuridica.junta@caixabank.com, prior to 11:59 pm on 30 November 2020. After receiving and verifying the documentation, the representative will be able to register and attend the Meeting remotely, provided that he/she satisfies the access and identification requirements indicated in the paragraph above.

Previous registration of proxies

Proxies that wish to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely shall register on the Remote Attendance Platform, starting 8:00 am and ending 11:00 am on the day that the General Shareholders' Meeting is held (i.e, 2 December 2020, at first call and, where applicable, 3 December 2020, at second call).

To prove their identity, proxies shall identify themselves using an electronic national ID card (DNIE), a recognised or advanced electronic signature, based on a valid, recognised electronic certificate, issued by the Spanish Public Certification Entity (CERES), belonging to the Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre, for users of the digital banking service CaixaBankNow, using their customised access codes.

In order for a proxy holder to register on the Remote Attendance Platform and attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely with shares that are not owned by him/herself, in case the proxy has not been sent or delivered to the Company via remote channels in due course and in accordance with the Instructions for Proxy and Remote Voting prior to the General Meeting that are published on the Company's website (www.CaixaBank.com), the proxy holder will have to prove in advance the existence of the proxy and his/hnister identity by sending a copy of the Proxy Card (Tarjeta de Delegación) issued by the Company or by the entity in which the legal entity shareholder has deposited the shares, duly filled in and signed by the represented shareholder, together with a copy of the proxy's national identity card (DNI), foreign resident certificate (NIE) or passport to the email address delegaciones.junta@caixabank.com before 11.59 pm on 30 November 2020. Once the delegation and other documentation has been received and verified, the proxy will be able to register and attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely provided they satisfy the requirements described in the paragraph above.

Other aspects relating to the registration of shareholders and proxies

- Shareholders and proxies who have failed to satisfy the previous registration requirements under the terms and conditions mentioned in the aforementioned sections shall not be entitled to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely. In this connection, once the registration has elapsed, the registration of new attendees shall not be allowed.
- If the General Shareholders' Meeting cannot be held on 2 December 2020 at first call because the required quorum has not been met, the shareholders and proxies holders registered for the meeting at first call shall have to complete the registration process again in order to remotely attend the General Shareholders' Meeting on 3 December 2020, at second call. If the General Shareholders' Meeting is held at second call, only the shareholders and proxy holders completing the registration and accreditation process on 3 December 2020 may attend, participate, request information, submit proposals and vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting as provided for in these Instructions for remotely attending the General Shareholders' Meeting.
- Shareholders attending the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely shall be considered present, to all intents and purposes, for all shares they own as reflected in CaixaBank's Shareholders Registry Book five (5) days prior to the date on which the General Shareholders' Meeting is held.
- For jointly owned shares, the joint holder who registers first to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be considered as the attendee and shall be entitled to participate, request information, propose motions and vote in relation to the jointly owned shares.
- Shareholders and proxy holders remotely attending the General Shareholders' Meeting who wish to expressly put on record that they are leaving the meeting so that their vote is not counted shall do so by sending an electronic notification via the link available to this end on the Remote Attendance Platform on the corporate website. Once notification of the departure has been submitted, no action performed remotely after that time shall be considered valid.

Streaming of the General Shareholders' Meeting

The General Shareholders' Meeting will be streamed at the link provided under Information on the General Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting - December 2020 on the Company's website (www.caixabank.com), which may be accessed by both the Company's shareholders and non shareholders. The streaming of the General Shareholders' Meeting may also be watched in English, and a sign language interpreter will also be available.

Exercise by shareholders and proxies of their rights to participate, receive information, submit proposals and vote remotely

Right of participation, information and proposal

Shareholders and proxies attending the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely and who, in the exercise of their rights, wish to participate at the General Shareholders' Meeting, request information or clarifications in writing that they deem necessary about the items of the agenda, the information accessible to the public that the Company has submitted to the CNMV since the last General Shareholders' Meeting or in relation to the auditor's report, or make proposals in writing under the terms provided for by law, shall indicate, where applicable, their intention of doing so when registering to attend the General Shareholders Meeting via the Remote Attendance Platform.

Speeches, requests for information and, where applicable, proposals, shall be submitted in writing using the link provided for that purpose on the Remote Attendance Platform when registering to use the Remote Attendance Platform and until speeches ends, which will be duly indicated during the course of the Meeting. The text shall contain a maximum of 7,500 characters, and each registered attendee shall be entitled to submit only one document.. Shareholders and proxies that wish their speeches to be included in the minutes of the meeting, will have to indicate this clearly and expressly in the heading of the submitted document. The Company shall accept only speeches, requests for information and proposals that are submitted using the mechanisms provided to this end on the Remote Attendance Platform, in the manner and before the deadline set out in these instructions.

Requests for information or clarifications from shareholders and proxies who remotely attend the meeting shall be answered verbally during the General Shareholders' Meeting or in writing, within the following seven (7) days.

Right to vote

Shareholders and proxies who attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely will be entitled to vote on the proposals relating to agenda items via the link and using the voting form provided via the Remote Attendance Platform once they have registered until the time for the proposals ends, which will be announced at the appropriate time during the meeting.

The voting during the General Shareholders' Meeting of any proposals that are not included in the agenda items shall be carried out using the link and form set up for this purpose on the Remote Attendance Platform, from the moment the proposals have been read and until the time for voting the proposals ends, which will be duly announced during the meeting.

Only votes cast using the mechanisms set up to this end via the Remote Attendance Platform will be accepted.
