1. INTRODUCTION

Effective functioning of the governing bodies is a key aspect of the corporate governance of listed companies and credit institutions in general, and establishing their adequate structure and composition is therefore a priority. In this regard, the processes for selecting and assessing the suitability of the members of the governing bodies are vital to assuring their proper and efficient composition and functioning.

The importance of diversity to the composition of the Board of Directors has recently been spotlighted, and as stated in the Code of Good Governance of Listed Companies (the "Code of Good Governance") it has led to the inclusion of a programmatic norm in commercial law: Article 529 bis of the Revised Text of the Law on Listed Companies, introduced by Law 11/2018<sup>1</sup>, by virtue of which the Boards of Directors of listed companies must ensure that the procedures for selecting their members favour diversity with regard to aspects such as age, gender, disability or professional training and experience, have no implicit biases that could entail discrimination of any kind and, in particular, facilitate the selection of a sufficient number of female Directors to enable a balanced presence of women and men.

Addressing these aspects in greater depth, Recommendation 14 of the Code of Good Governance, in its current wording (June 2020), states that the Board must approve a policy aimed at achieving an appropriate composition of the Board of Directors favouring diversity of knowledge, experience, age and gender.

Similarly, in accordance with Article 88.1 of Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council, of 26 June 2013, on access to the activity of credit institutions and the prudential supervision of credit institutions and investment firms, the entity's governing body must adopt a policy for assessing the suitability of its members, keeping it constantly updated. The requirements, conditions and key aspects of the suitability assessment procedures are governed by the applicable Spanish legislation, particularly Law 10/2014, of 26 June, on regulation, supervision and solvency of credit institutions, Royal Decree 84/2015, of 13 February, implementing Law 10/2014 and Bank of Spain Circular 2/2016, of 2 February, for credit institutions, on supervision and solvency.

Also, the EBA Guidelines on the assessment of suitability of members of the management body and key function holders (EBA/GL/2017/12) oblige the entities to guarantee that a policy exists in a group context for assessing the suitability of all members of the governing body and key function holders, for compliance by all the subsidiary companies included within the scope of prudential consolidation, without prejudice to the fact that subsidiaries subject to Directive 2013/36/EU must adopt and apply a suitability policy in an individual context, consistent with the policy established at consolidated level.

Just as the suitable composition of the Board of Directors is a priority for guaranteeing its efficient functioning and vital to the corporate governance of credit institutions, the selection procedure for the entity's senior management members is also of the utmost importance, as these managers are the link between the Board of Directors and the rest of the organisation. This requirement also extends to those responsible for internal control functions, as a vital aspect of the entity's internal governance mechanisms and, where appropriate, to other key function holders.

<sup>1</sup> Law 11/2018, of 28 December, amending the Commercial Code, the revised text of the Spanish Corporation Law (Ley de Sociedades de Capital) approved by Royal Legislative Decree 1/2010, of 2 July, and Law 22/2015, of 20 July, on Auditing, regarding non-financial information and diversity.

In accordance with the solvency regulations applicable to it as a credit institution, CaixaBank must have "adequate internal units and procedures for the selection and ongoing assessment of the members of its Board of Directors, its managing directors or similar and those responsible for internal control functions and other key positions at the entity".

The suitability requirements and selection and assessment procedures established in this Policy shall be applied without prejudice to any other substantive or procedural rules of a legal, statutory, or where the case may be corporate governance-related or conventional nature, governing the capacity, obligations and requirements of persons subject to the Policy with regard to their appointment and continuance in their respective posts.

The determination of the general policies and strategies of the Company and the group it controls (the "CaixaBank Group" or the "Group") is a non-delegable power of the Board of Directors of CaixaBank, S.A. ("CaixaBank" or the "Company" or the "Entity"). Consequently, at its meeting of 20 September 2018, the Company's Board of Directors approved the Policy for selection, diversity and suitability assessment of Directors and senior management members and other key function holders of CaixaBank and its Group (the "Policy"), which forms part of the Company's corporate governance system and includes the main aspects and commitments of the Company and its Group with regard to the selection and suitability assessment of Directors and senior management members and key function holders, having agreed to review and update certain aspects of the same at its meeting on December 17th, 2020.

2. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

The purpose of this Policy is to establish the principles, criteria and fundamental aspects of the organisation and the procedures for assessing the suitability of the members of CaixaBank's Board of Directors and the senior management members and other key function holders, particularly the selection processes for their appointment, all in accordance with the applicable regulations and best corporate governance practice.

This Policy is one of CaixaBank's Corporate Policies and complements the Corporate Governance Policy of CaixaBank and its Group, the CaixaBank Group Structure Definition Policy and the Internal Governance Policy, its scope being the suitability of Directors, senior management members and key function holders.

3. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

- The Policy is applicable to CaixaBank. Specifically, its provisions govern the selection and suitability assessment procedures for members of the Board of Directors whose reappointment is proposed and candidates for appointment as Directors.

If the Director is a legal entity, the natural person appointed to represent it must meet the legal requirements established for the administrators, must abide by the same obligations and will be jointly and severally liable with the legal entity Director, subject to the provisions of this Policy where appropriate.

Similarly, this Policy also applies to the procedures for selection and suitability assessment of candidates for senior management posts and key function holders.

- The Policy also applies in a group context. In particular, the policy must be observed by the CaixaBank Group's most relevant subsidiaries, which must be aware of it, and where the case maybe they may make any adaptations they deem appropriate, without prejudice to approval of their own policies where applicable. Any special features deriving from the regulatory framework applicable to each subsidiary company's governing body must be taken into account, particularly those operating in regulated sectors, which in addition to the banking sector include the insurance sector and that of provision of investment and other specialist financial services, and that of entities based in jurisdictions other than Spain.

If the subsidiaries make any adaptations to the Policy or draw up their own policies, these must be previously submitted for approval by the General Secretary's and Board of Directors' Department, which will check that the proposed texts are in accordance with the Policy, sending the corresponding report to the subsidiary company. Likewise, the General Secretary's and Board of Directors' Department will inform the CaixaBank Appointment Committee of the policies approved by the subsidiaries.

In this regard, all regulated financial subsidiaries carrying out CaixaBank's inherent business, and other significant subsidiaries carrying out their activity in other fields of business shall be considered the CaixaBank Group's most relevant subsidiaries.

4. MAIN PRINCIPLES

- Every effort must be made to guarantee the diversity and balance of the composition of the Board of Directors.
- With regard to the processes for selecting members of the Board of Directors, in order to guarantee the coexistence of different opinions on the Board the responsible bodies must always bear in mind the principle of diversity, particularly gender diversity and, among others, diversity of training and professional experience, age and geographical origin and any others deemed relevant with a view to ensuring an appropriate, diverse composition of the Board and the principle of non-discrimination and equal treatment, ensuring that it facilitates selection of the underrepresented gender in sufficient number to achieve a balanced presence of women and men among the candidates proposed for appointment or reappointment to the Board, avoiding any discrimination whatsoever in this regard.
- As to the selection of senior management members and key function holders, priority must be given to attracting and retaining persons with a suitable profile, guaranteeing identification, attraction, retention and development of talent and also ensuring that competition for the specific post is encouraged at all times and, whenever possible, favouring diversity, with the proposals always contemplating the principle of non-discrimination and equal treatment. In particular, it must be guaranteed that measures are established to encourage the Entity's inclusion of a significant number of female senior managers.

6. RULES APPLICABLE TO MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

6.1. Key elements of the diversity policy for the Board of Directors

The suitably diverse composition of the Board of Directors, in accordance with the principles listed in section 4 of this Policy, shall ensure a wide range of knowledge, qualities, viewpoints and experience on the Board, helping to foster diverse, independent opinions and a sound, mature decision-making process.

Ensuring a suitably diverse composition of the Board thus constitutes a key aspect of both this Policy and the selection and suitability assessment procedures for CaixaBank's Directors and, as such, is taken into account at all times.

The Board of Directors and the Appointment Committee shall attach particular value to gender diversity and to diversity of training and professional experience, age and geographical origin and any other aspects it deems relevant, always observing the principle of non-discrimination and equal treatment.

The following considerations in particular are to be taken into account:

- On undertaking the selection and reappointment procedures for the Directors, weighting must be given to the aim of guaranteeing the appropriacy and diversity of the governing body, particularly fostering gender diversity and also diversity of knowledge, training and professional experience, age and geographical origin, among others, when the suitability assessment is made. The candidates' suitability assessment reports must include an evaluation of how the candidate contributes to guaranteeing the diverse and appropriate composition of the Board of Directors.
- The Board of Directors and the Appointment Committee must always endeavour to ensure a suitable balance of knowledge and experience and also to facilitate selection of candidates of the underrepresented gender, avoiding any kind of discrimination in this regard. Any implicit bias in the selection procedures hindering the selection of female Directors must be avoided and whenever possible the potential candidates must include women who meet the professional profile sought, enabling a balanced proportion of women to be achieved, contemplating the stipulations of Recommendation 15 of the Code of Good Governance in this regard, which states that the number of female Directors must account for 40% of the Board of Directors before the end of 2022 and onwards, and under no circumstances be less than 30%. The Committee must also take into account the measures established with a view to encouraging a significant number of female senior managers at the Entity.

- On conducting the annual assessment of the composition and competencies of the Board of Directors, the aforementioned diversity aspects must be taken into account, particularly the gender diversity targets. The Appointment Committee must record the degree of compliance with this goal, and with any others deemed relevant where the case may be, and if it is not achieved they must indicate the reasons, the means for resolving this situation and the action schedule.
- The Annual Corporate Governance Report will include a description of the main aspects and targets of the Diversity Policy and the results obtained, including the specific measures adopted by the Board of Directors and the Appointment Committee where the case may be, to favour the appropriate composition of the Board of Directors.

6.2. Suitability requirements for the Directors

The Appointment Committee, assisted by the General Secretary's and Board of Directors' Department and taking into account the necessary balance of knowledge, experience, skill and diversity on the Board of Directors, will draw up and constantly update a competency matrix, to be submitted for approval by the Board of Directors.

Where the case may be, the results of applying the matrix may serve to identify future training needs or areas to be strengthened on making future appointments.

6.3. Training of the Directors

6.3.1. Welcome and onboarding programmes

Similarly, after their appointment, the Directors must receive all the initial information guaranteeing their adequate onboarding to CaixaBank within a maximum of six months from the date on which they take office, and they must be given basic information on the Entity within a month of taking office.

The Appointment Committee, assisted by the Administrative and Board of Directors' Office and, where the case may be, by the General Human Resources and Organisation Division or any other Departments deemed appropriate, must approve the specific content and all other aspects relating to these programmes.

The aim of the programmes is to provide the Directors with a clear understanding of the structure, business model, risk profile and internal governance of CaixaBank and its Group, particularly with regard to the applicable regulatory framework. It must also include any matters it is considered that the new Director must be informed of at any given time in order to perform his or her functions on the Board.

6.3.2. Annual continuing training plans

Each year, after the Appointment Committee has conducted the annual collective suitability assessment of the Board of Directors and in view of the conclusions obtained, it will draw up a draft annual training plan for the following year which, after review by the Chairman of the Board, will be submitted for approval by the Board of Directors. For these purposes, the Directors' opinions with regard to training requirements will be taken into account in the annual self-assessment exercise.

The annual Plan will include all the internal or external training activities deemed necessary to provide the Directors with a suitable understanding of the Entity's structure and risk profile and enable them to become actively involved in the Board's debates. The General Secretary's and Board of Directors' Department will provide assistance and collaboration on drawing up the annual continuing training Plan. Also, if so required by the Appointment Committee, the General Human Resources and Organisation Division or any other Departments deemed relevant with regard to the matters in question may collaborate with the General Secretary's Office.

In particular, all matters connected with risk management, the business, new features of the applicable regulatory system, new features connected with the Entity's Strategic Plan targets, etc. will be especially taken into account.

During its year of application, the Appointment Committee may amend the Plan, on approval by the Chairman of the Board, in order to cater to any new needs detected, either collective or individual, where the case may be.

6.4. Board of Directors' Succession Plan

In accordance with the CaixaBank Company By-laws, the Appointment Committee is responsible for studying and organising the Chairman's succession (under the coordination of the Lead Independent Director where the case may be and in collaboration with the Chairman of the Board of Directors), for studying and organising the succession of the company's Chief Executive Officer (in collaboration with the Chairman) and also, where the case may be, for drawing up proposals to the Board of Directors with a view to this succession being made in a planned, orderly manner.

The plans must also establish the procedures for covering any sudden or unexpected absence or the departure of any of the Board members, including the possibility of making an interim appointment. The succession plans must also take into account the diversity-related targets and purposes indicated in section 6.1 of this Policy.

7. RULES APPLICABLE TO SENIOR MANAGEMENT MEMBERS AND OTHER KEY FUNCTION HOLDERS

7.1. Individual requirements for senior management members and other key function holders

A detailed description of the procedure for conducting the assessment is included in the Protocol on procedures for suitability assessment and appointment of Directors and senior management members and other key function holders of CaixaBank.
