

Juan Ramón Fuertes rejoins CaixaBank's Canary Islands Regional Division

Santa Cruz de Tenerife, 4 September 2017.- Juan Ramón Fuertes has rejoined CaixaBank's Canary Islands Regional Division as the most senior executive of the same, having concluded his mission in Portugal to support the integration of Portuguese bank BPI within CaixaBank.

As a result, Manuel Afonso Salazar will take up the post of Corporate Director of the Business-Transactional Banking Division, seeking to strengthen this area.

At the helm of the Canary Islands Regional Division, Juan Ramón Fuertes will be responsible for operations at the 255 branches and the more than 800,000 customers that the bank currently serves in said territory.

Meanwhile, Manuel Afonso Salazar, the new Corporate Director of the Business-Transactional Banking Division, is a long-standing figure at CaixaBank, which he joined in 1996. Since then he has held senior positions in branch management and as director of business banking.
