CaixaBank strengthens its real estate portal through a collaboration agreement with Engel & Völkers, which will add a total of 6,000 properties to 'Facilitea Casa'. More than half have already been incorporated, while work continues to connect the company's franchise platforms to include the remaining 2,000.

This alliance reinforces 'Facilitea Casa's' strategy of partnering with leading professional real estate agents to expand its digital offering. With Engel & Völkers onboard, the portal now lists 47,000 properties for rent or sale across Spain—an almost 20% increase over the 40,000 available at launch last June.

Beyond being a real estate showcase, 'Facilitea Casa' aspires to become a leading digital hub for buyers and professional agents. The goal is to close 2025 with 60,000 professionally selected properties nationwide, representing a 50% increase over the initial offering.

To achieve this, 'Facilitea Casa' leverages the expertise of top agents in each municipality, ensuring verified properties. The portal already collaborates with 1,500 agents, and the number continues to grow.

Over one million visits

Since its launch, 'Facilitea Casa' has surpassed one million visits, reflecting strong interest from both home seekers and real estate professionals, thanks to its security and ease of use.

For professionals, it serves as a trusted showcase. Property verification with reputable agencies is a key feature, and listings are reserved exclusively for real estate professionals.

For individual homeowners, 'Facilitea Casa' offers an indicative valuation tool and connects them with the best local agents. Clients can also explore CaixaBank's financing options, with personalized support throughout the process.

Additionally, CaixaBank provides home-related products and services such as insurance, alarms, and renovation loans. 'Facilitea Casa' is designed to evolve, adding new services that create value for both clients and professionals.

The portal is part of the broader 'Facilitea' selectplace, offering a curated range of products and solutions—from cars to technology, home, sports, and leisure—accessible through financing provided by the CaixaBank Group.
